

Haryana Land Revenue Act, Section 111

Section 111 – Procedure for Mutation

- (1) When a person acquires by inheritance, purchase, gift, mortgage, lease or otherwise, any right in an estate as a landowner or tenant, he shall report the acquisition of such right to the patwari of the estate.
- (2) The patwari shall enter the particulars of the acquisition in the mutation register and submit the same to the revenue officer for sanction.
- (3) The revenue officer shall, after making such inquiry as he deems necessary, pass orders sanctioning or rejecting the mutation.
- (4) If the mutation is sanctioned, the change shall be incorporated in the record-of-rights.
- (5) If any party is aggrieved by the order of the revenue officer, he may appeal to the prescribed authority within the stipulated time.
- (6) No mutation shall be sanctioned unless notice has been given to all interested parties and an opportunity to be heard has been provided.
- (7) The procedure for mutation shall be governed by rules prescribed under this Act.
